"People First"

Senior Mayor for the Day Mrs. Gloria Lagarde February 2, 2010

"Mayor" Lagarde has been married to Clarence Lagarde for nearly 51 years. She has four children, nine grandchildren, and one great grandchild. She is a member of the Mt. Zion Baptist Church where she teaches Sunday School and served as director of a grant which funded Mt. Zion's After-School Program for the past four years. "Mayor" Lagarde is a retired teacher who worked for the Lafourche Parish School System for thirty years. After retiring, she "became bored" so she worked as a substitute teacher in Terrebonne Parish for nearly five year.

"Mayor" Lagarde is passionate about educating children. She believes whole-heartedly in the school system and the teachers who work tirelessly to make a difference in the lives of children.

She has lived in Thibodaux virtually all her life (she lived in Washington D.C. for about eighteen months) and loves our city. She said, "I am grateful that Thibodaux has had honest leaders who have not been accused of any wrong-doing." And Thibodaux is grateful and lucky to have a life-long resident such as "Mayor" Gloria Lagarde.

Thank You, "Mayor" Lagarde. You served the City well!
